5 Sales Scripts

TO INCREASE YOUR
CLOSING RATE BY 50% OR MORE

Welcome! I'm so excited you've decided to download this Sales Script cheat sheet.

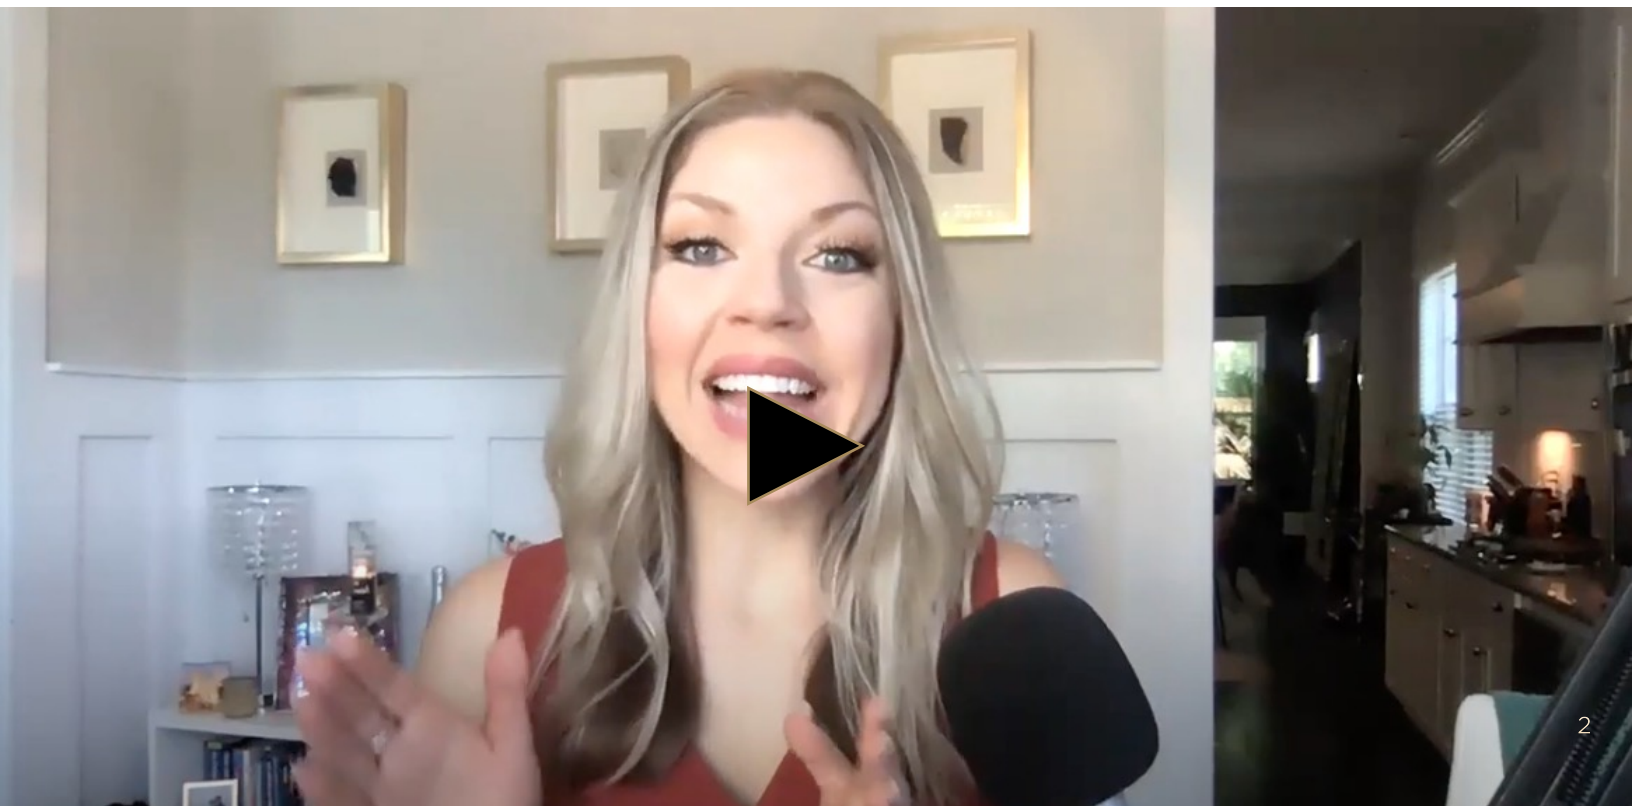

Right off the bat, I have something to confess to you - I am NOT big on scripts. In fact, it was several simple mindset shifts that helped me turn my annual income into my monthly income in just 6 weeks (learn more about that in this podcast episode), and the thing I love most about working with my clients is helping them form an identity where the amount of money and sales they desire MUST come to them every month because of how they have wired their brain.

With that being said, though, the name of the game in sales is discovery calls and conversations, and the more of those you convert, the more money you make.

There are 5 key things I incorporated in my sales conversations over the past 15 years that helped me consistently have a high closing rate (that rate is almost 100% now!), and I wanted to share with you exactly what they are so you can start closing WAY more sales and bringing in way more money every month too!

Ready to find out what they are?
